A CAMPAIGN TO MEET NEEDS

AT FORT MASON
CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

The At-Fort-Mason Capital Campaign is a $7.5 million fund-raising effort to complete major renovations projects within the historic Piers and Landmark Buildings of Fort Mason Center.

Fort Mason has the distinction of being the first cultural center of its kind in the nation, and is one of San Francisco's best-attended cultural resources, with 1.7 million visitors annually.

For a decade, Fort Mason has been a focal point for nonprofit cultural and educational activities in the Bay Area, and has become known as the definitive model for the conversion of surplus public property to community use.

Why does Fort Mason Center need a Capital Campaign? Here are five very good reasons:

Because the At-Fort-Mason Capital Campaign will create better facilities for outstanding programs. Fort Mason's buildings are 70 years old, and are critically in need of renovation and modernization. The Capital Campaign projects will redesign and refurbish Fort Mason so that the quality of its facilities will match the high quality of the activities presented within them.

Because the At-Fort-Mason Capital Campaign will provide needed facilities for hundreds of nonprofit organizations. In a city of escalating rents and scarce activity space, Fort Mason is a welcome find. Its commitment is to operate the facilities at affordable rates for nonprofit organizations. These groups are offered facilities, free parking, and centralized publicity, all in a beautiful waterfront location.

Because through the At-Fort-Mason Capital Campaign, this National Historic Landmark will be preserved. Fort Mason has been designated a National Historic Landmark for the important role it played as the major port of embarkation to the Pacific during World War II and the Korean war.

Because the At-Fort-Mason Capital Campaign is a well-planned and achievable endeavor. With exceptional leadership, community support, and a strong financial position, the Capital Campaign is proceeding according to a carefully designed plan for success. Over half of the $7.5 million goal has already been raised.

Because the At-Fort-Mason Capital Campaign gives the community a place to be proud of. Fort Mason works. It is a showcase for a wide array of activities that delight, enrich, and challenge people of all ages and cultural traditions. Through the Capital Campaign, Fort Mason's future will be guaranteed for generations to come.

The initial success of the Capital Campaign can already be seen. With funds raised to date, renovation of the piers has begun, including the Exhibition Hall and Festival Pavilion projects. Work on the Bayfront Theater is expected to begin in late 1987. (These projects have been described in previous issues of the Calendar.)

With more than half of the $7.5 million goal raised in gifts and pledges, the Campaign Committee, led by Honorary Chair Mayor Dianne Feinstein, is now focusing its efforts on the task of raising the remaining $3.5 million. During 1987 and 1988, Fort Mason will be turning to the people of San Francisco and the Bay Area—the citizens, corporations, and foundations—for their support in this important endeavor.

For more information about the At-Fort-Mason Capital Campaign, call 441-3400.

The Capital Campaign Committee is led by Honorary Chair Mayor Dianne Feinstein.

FMC UPDATE—EXHIBITS

The Museo ItaloAmericano features a special exhibition by Michael Arata called "Marco Polo Reinvents the Wheel." This show was created specifically for the Museo's gallery, using its unique architectural aspects as an integral part of the installation. Included are arcades, watercraft and cypress tree forms, bringing to mind Italian landscapes and gardens. This exhibit runs from April 20 through June 26, in Building C. Museo hours are Wednesday through Sunday, noon to 5pm. Admission is free. For information, call 673-2200.

The San Francisco Art Institute Graduate MFA Show is presented each year at Fort Mason Center. This is a showcase for graduate students from the Master of Fine Arts program, who create individual exhibits to display their works to the public. This is an opportunity to discover what's really on the cutting edge in the art world. The show runs from April 25 through May 10 in Pier 3. Hours are noon to 6pm. Admission is free. For information, call 771-7020.

The San Francisco Craft and Folk Art Museum presents a special exhibit entitled "Contrasts in Wood: John Abduljaami and Harold Pepperell" highlighting the work of two very distinctive craftsmen. Oakland resident John Abduljaami creates sculptures of people and animals from huge chunks of wood using only a hand axe. Harold Pepperell from Tiburon, on the other hand, uses power tools and lamination techniques to produce more abstract wood sculptures, often incorporating stones from the Sierras and sometimes bronze. Each of these talented Bay Area artisans demonstrates a unique creative vision. The show runs from April 29 through June 21, in Building A. Museum hours are Wednesday through Sunday, noon to 5pm. Admission is $1. For information, call 775-0990.

The Fort Mason Printmakers exhibit "The Spring Collection." This diverse selection of etchings and monoprints, the work of students and instructors from the Fort Mason Art Center, is displayed in the Fort Mason Center Lobby, Building A, from May 1 through 27. Hours are 9am to 5pm, Monday through Saturday. Admission is free. For information, call 441-5706.

¡Frida! A celebration of Frida Kahlo's art at the Mexican Museum begins on Cinco de Mayo.

The Mexican Museum celebrates Cinco de Mayo with the opening of "¡Frida!" This rare exhibition provides an intimate view of the work, life and times of Mexican artist Frida Kahlo, including photographs, letters and memorabilia, along with 27 paintings and drawings representing the most comprehensive collection of Kahlo's art seen in America in a decade. The show runs from May 2 through August 2, in Building D. Museum hours are Wednesday through Sunday, noon to 5pm. Admission is $3 and $2 (free admission on Wednesdays). For information, call 441-0404.

Israeli Expo '87 This second annual celebration, commemorating the 39th birthday of Israel's statehood, features a potpourri of exhibits, ranging from artisans' wares of porcelain to decorative textiles and elegant framed papercuts. Sunday, May 31, from 10am to 5pm, in Pier 3. Admission is $3 and $1. For information, call 777-0411.

The Ace*, based on Al Zampa's stories about the building of the Golden Gate Bridge.

Arrangements can be made for the handicapped if notified in advance. Ramps and elevators are available. Offices are open Monday-Saturday from 9am-5pm. Call 441-5706. Fort Mason Center is located at Laguna Street and Marina Boulevard, San Francisco, CA 94123.

GOLDEN GATE BRIDGE CELEBRATION

As everyone knows by now, the Golden Gate Bridge is having a birthday party. On Sunday, May 24, the Bay Area will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of perhaps the most well-known bridge in the world. Many events will be taking place in various locations around San Francisco, and Fort Mason Center will also mark the occasion during May.

The Golden Gate Bridge Quilt Block exhibit is the result of a contest sponsored by the San Francisco Quilters Guild. The theme, of course, is the Golden Gate Bridge. The exhibit includes quilt blocks submitted from all over California by both children and adults. The winning entries, selected by a panel of judges, will be made into one large quilt that will be hung in the proposed Golden Gate Bridge Museum. Other blocks will be made into wallhangings and quilts, to be donated to hospitals and other institutions. The entries can be viewed in the Fort Mason Conference Center, Building A, on Sunday, May 10 from 11am to 5pm and Monday, May 11, from 10am to 4pm. Admission is free. For more information, call 392-4919.

Tale Spinners Theater is presenting a production of The Ace by Isabelle Maynard. The play was developed through a special Oral History Project in conjunction with a class presented by PlayWorks. The Ace is based on the stories of Al Zampa, who wrote about the building of the Golden Gate Bridge from first-hand observation. The play runs from May 13 through June 7. On Tuesday, May 12, a preview benefits the Bay Area Union Ironworkers and the San Francisco Labor Archives. A matinee on Sunday, May 17 at 3pm benefits the San Francisco Gray Panthers. Performances are in Building B, at Life On The Water, at 8pm. Cost of tickets is on a sliding scale, from $14 to $8. For reservations, call 776-8999.

Greens Restaurant, which has one of the best views in the city of the Golden Gate Bridge, is planning a special dinner event, which they hope to host on the evening of the Bridge Celebration, Sunday, May 24. For details, call Greens at Fort Mason, 771-6222.

Also planned for the 24th is an afternoon of family-oriented events, taking place nearby at Fort Point, Crissy Field and the Marina Green, with fireworks following in the evening. For details, call the Friends of the Golden Gate Bridge at 421-1987.
